

NEW PROPOSALS OF GERMANY MADE KNOWN

ALLIES RECEIVE THEM THRU GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Fix Liabilities At Two Hundred Billion Gold Marks, Equivalent to About Fifty Billion in Our Money--Main Points in Proposal Are Given Out.

BERLIN, April 26.—The German people now know the new proposals which the German government submits to the allied powers thru the medium of the United States. The terms of the proposals were made public today, as well as the accompanying assurances forwarded to President Harding.

Germany, declaring that the peace and welfare of the world are dependent upon a speedy and just solution of the reparations question, assures the president that it will do everything in its power to enable the American government to direct the attention of the allied governments to the matter.

As previously outlined, Germany proposes to pay the allies an indemnity extending over a number of years which will amount to two hundred billion gold marks, equivalent to about $50,000,000,000; she will co-operate to her utmost in the reconstruction of devastated regions; she will place immediately at the disposal of the reparations commission one billion gold marks; she is willing to assume the allied obligations to the United States, and she will issue an international loan, the proceeds of which will go to the allies.

But in return she makes the condition that the present system of penalties shall be discontinued immediately, that she be given freedom of trade and that she be freed from "all unproductive outlays" now imposed on her.

The German foreign minister, Dr. Simons explaining the counter-proposal in the Reichstag declared that new offer sent thru the United States must not be taken on the basis of an increase over the previous German offer, but only on a different basis. The new step had been taken by Germany, he explained, not from fear of new penalties, but owing entirely to the false views entertained abroad regarding the reparations question. President Harding was appealed to on the principle of justice and the American answer was awaited at any moment.

The text of the note forwarded by Germany to the United States for transmission to the Allies concluded with the following points:

One. Germany fixes her liability at $50,000,000,000 payable in suitable annuities to total 200,000,000,000 gold marks.

Two. Germany will immediately issue an international loan in which she will participate, and of which the value, rate of interest and scale of redemption shall be subject to agreement, the proceeds of the loan to be put at the disposal of the Allies.

Three. Germany will pay, according to her capacity, in labor, forest and redemption, the total sum to be paid which is not covered by the international loan; she considers in this connection that it will be possible to pay only four per cent annual interest.

Four. Germany is disposed to permit the Allies to share in an

OPPOSITION TO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

President May Have Some Work Putting the Proposition Over

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 26.—Plans for creation of a new federal department of public welfare still in a formative stage have already aroused enough opposition to indicate that President Harding will have much work to do before whipping the project into final shape.

The matter was up today, both at the cabinet meeting and at a conference between Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor, and Secretary Davis and Brig. Gen. Sawyer, Mr. Harding's personal representative in welfare department preliminary studies.

The labor men voiced objections to transfer of the children's and women's bureau of the department of labor to the proposed new department, and the cabinet meeting was said to have developed a difference of opinion as to what should be done with federal educational agencies.

No Conclusion Reached.
It was indicated that no conclusion was reached by Mr. Harding and his advisers and that the president planned to confer with administrative officials and members of congress before reaching a final decision. The labor men's opposition was presented during his campaign and confirmed in recommendations to congress.

Some administration officials are represented as opposing any effort to consolidate existing educational agencies like the bureau of education in the interior department with the projected welfare department. It was said they believe a department of education should be created and the work be broadened in this field separately, leaving questions of public health and related subjects to the welfare department.

Organized labor's objections, as voiced by Matthew Woll, vice-president of the labor federation, to removal of the women's and children's bureau from the labor department rested on the contention that with them would go supervision over women and children in industry, matters in which labor is held to have a vital interest.

DECLINE OF THREE PERCENT IN PRICES

Washington, April 26.—A decline of three per cent in wholesale prices during March was announced tonight by the federal reserve board on the basis of index numbers compiled for the purpose of comparison.

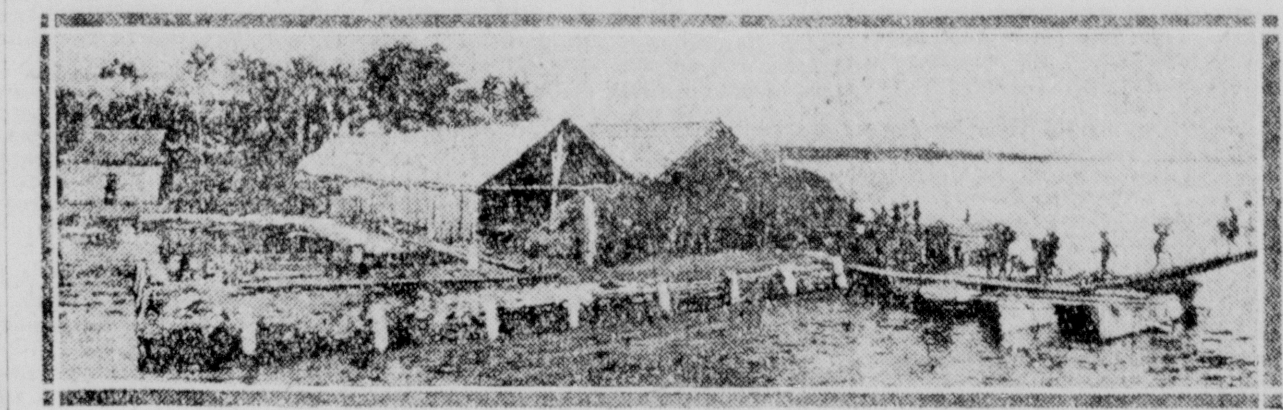

On the basis of prices in 1913 indexed as 100, the board said, commodities imported shifted from 113 in February to 114 during March. Prices of exports declined from 135 in February to 125 in March. The all commodities index stands at 156 as compared with 154 in February.

DR. SIMMONS TELLS THE REICHSTAG OF GERMAN OFFER

Says Must at Present Yield to Threats of Commission

SPEAKS OF IDEA OF LOAN IN AMERICA

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, April 26.—Speaking in the Reichstag today with regard to the reparations, Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister, declared that as the Reichstag had regarded Germany's offer to the Allies, made at the recent London conference, too high, the members could not take the new offer, sent thru the United States on the basis of an increase over the previous German offer, but only on a different basis.

The neutral experts Dr. Simons continued, unfortunately, had over-estimated Germany's capacity to pay. He said he always had emphasized the fact that he was ready to enter into new negotiations.

He admitted he had hoped he could come to an understanding direct with France, but that the feeling there was such that he had been unable to retain that hope. Therefore, there remained only one power to turn to, neither neutral nor one of the Allies, and that was the United States.

Another power he added, had offered its good offices, but its efforts were balked by the indications of the German press.

He declared it was the government's duty to take its new step, not from fear of new penalties, but owing entirely to the false views entertained abroad regarding the reparations question.

"That step was unusual," he said, "but a great leader, who has acknowledged himself a supporter of the idea of arbitration, can act as arbitrator, especially as he has been advised by a great lawyer and has been in the United States with the highest judicial office. We have appealed on the principle of justice. Is that cringing before our opponents? In my opinion it is not."

Must Yield to Threats!
"At present we must yield to the threats of the reparations commission. We want to put our views clearly, hence we choose this form in accordance with German, but American, jurisdiction, and therefore American counsel. I am convinced this step will be judged later differently than now."

"When President Harding asked us to make proposals or negotiations, suitable to the allies, this cabinet was obliged to act in accordance with facts. The note was unanimously approved by the cabinet and the American answer is awaited any moment."

The idea of a loan in America, said Dr. Simons, had not been favorably entertained there, but Germany, nevertheless, had made efforts in that direction. Up to the present, he said, Germany had adhered to the standpoint that Germany had already given the value of 20,000,000,000 gold marks, payable before May 1. Germany's opponents had estimated the value of the ships handed over at a ridiculously low figure, he said, but perhaps the value of the ships had depreciated. Hence Germany had offered another billion in gold marks.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE SHOWS MORE STRENGTH

New York, April 26.—In the financial markets the most direct response to Germany's latest reparations proposals was witnessed in foreign exchange.

Dealings in bills on Paris were especially heavy, the demand rate standing at 7.57, the highest quotation since late June and rising steadily to 7.72 after the close of the stock market.

Exchange on London did not rise to its high figure of the previous day, but the Belgian rate, as well as Italian and Swiss exchange was strong.

SENATE CONFIRMS THE NOMINATION OF GENERAL EDWARDS

Confirmation Made Despite Strong Opposition by Democrats

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 26.—The nominations of Brigadier-General Clarence R. Edwards and eleven other brigadier generals to be major generals were confirmed late today by the senate.

The nominations of fourteen colonels to be brigadier generals also were confirmed. The senate late today confirmed the nomination of Guy D. Goff of Wisconsin to be assistant to the attorney general.

Opposition to General Edwards, which had developed in the military committee, was carried to the senate floor, Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, it was reported, led the fight against him and forced a roll call upon which there were only five negative votes against confirmation. All of these were Democrats.

Many Senators Absent.
The vote for Edwards was said to be 55, including several Democratic senators. A large number of senators were absent.

Senator McKellar was reported to have based his opposition on the information disclosed before the military committee. This related to the relief of General Edwards from command of the 26th (New England National Guard) division, on the eve of battle in October, 1918, by General Pershing. It was said Senator McKellar took the position that General Edwards' military record did not justify his promotion.

The senate also confirmed a number of army officers to be brigadier generals in charge of war department bureaus. Among these were Charles T. Menoher, to be chief of the air service; George O. Squier, to be chief signal officer; and John L. Chamberlain, to be inspector general.

Charles G. Dawes of Chicago, was confirmed as a brigadier general in the reserve corps and the senate also approved several hundred minor promotions in the army.

FINAL TOUCHES PUT ON UTILITIES BILL

Gives Municipal Home Rule of Utilities to Cities—Home Rule Would be Optional

(By The Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., April 26.—Final touches were put on the Small-Thompson utilities bill at a conference between Governor Small and administration leaders to night.

The bill repeals the present utilities act, abolishes the state public utilities commission, creating in its place the Illinois commission, and gives municipal home rule to cities over their utilities.

Home rule would be optional. Abrogation of contracts could be made only upon a vote of the people.

Seven members would constitute the new commission and in addition eight assistant commissioners would be appointed to conduct hearings in the cities from which applications are received. Rate fixing and regulation of service for all utilities would come under the powers of the commission and the "home rule" cities.

NEW TRIALS REFUSED IN BERGDOFF CASE

PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—New trials were refused today to Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, Charles Braun, her son; James E. Romig, Harry S. Schuh, and Albert S. Mitchell, who were found guilty last September of a conspiracy to assist Grover C. Bergdoll and Erwin Bergdoll to desert from the United States army in time of war. The decision was announced by Judge Dickinson of the United States district court. Sentence probably will be imposed May 6, it was said.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON FARMERS' MARKETING BILL

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The house judiciary committee ordered today a favorable report on the Volstead bill permitting organization by farmers, ranchmen, dairymen and fruit growers for purposes of collective marketing. The secretary of agriculture would have supervisory powers, enabling him to prevent efforts in restraint of trade to unduly advance the prices of products handled by the association.

BUDGET MEASURE OF M'CORMICK IS PASSED BY SENATE

Action Taken by Senate Without a Record Vote

BILL WILL ABOLISH TWO OFFICES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 26.—Without a record vote, the senate today passed the budget bill. Brief debate preceded the final vote on the measure, which was introduced originally by Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, passed the senate and house during the sixty-sixth congress, vetoed by President Wilson and then repassed by the house with the sections found objectionable by the executive stricken out.

The bill provides for a bureau of the budget in the treasury department to prepare the estimates of appropriations needed by the various departments. The bureau would have as its head a director of the budget, appointed by the president with the consent of the senate for a term of seven years with an annual salary of $10,000.

The original bill provided for the appointment of a comptroller general to hold office during good behavior and to be removed only by concurrent resolution of congress. The provision formed the objection voiced by President Wilson who held that it would take from the president the power to remove executive officials.

Abolishes Two Offices.
The offices of comptroller and assistant comptroller of the treasury would be abolished under the revised bill, and in their stead offices of comptroller general and assistant comptroller would be created. The measure approved today by the senate would permit their removal by joint congressional resolution which requires the president's signature.

Efforts of Democrats were directed toward scaling down the salaries of officers provided in the bill. Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, called attention to the adoption of an additional office in the budget bureau and said he was "curious why, at this time, when we are trying to practice economy," there should be an effort by the Republicans to increase the number of offices.

Senator McCormick retorted that the Mississippi senator's statement "sounds like an echo from the Baltimore convention of 1912." Senator Harrison's efforts to eliminate the added office by amendment were lost.

Objecting to the fixing of the salary of the assistant director of the budget at $9,000, Senator Harrison offered an amendment to reduce it to $7,000, saying he was sure "some long, lean, lanky, hungry Republican would accept the office at that salary." Senator McCormick accepted the amendment and it was agreed to.

WHEELER BILL WOULD GIVE GOVERNOR FINE POLITICAL MACHINE

Provides for Appointment by Executive of Health Commissioner in Every County in the State—Bill Passed Eliminating Cities of 15,000 from Provisions of Primary Act

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 26.—By a vote of 27 to 11 the senate tonight defeated the Sadler bill which provided for the manufacture of automobile license plates, signs and guide posts at the state reformatory at Pontiac.

Taking up the Meents highway bill again at four p. m., the senate advanced it to third reading after administration forces defeated every effort to amend it by striking out or modifying the provisions removing highway department employees from civil service.

Bills passed by the senate tonight follow:
Senator Wheeler's county health commissioner bill which provides for the appointment by the governor of a health commissioner in every county in the state. The commissioner would be selected from a list of five physicians recommended by the county board. The bill passed by a vote of 34 to 1, Senator Barbour of Chicago voting against the measure.

Senator Buck's bill eliminating cities of 15,000 from the provisions of the primary act in making up municipal tickets.

HAYWOOD IN RUSSIA BELIEF OF OFFICERS

Do Not Think it Likely He Will Return to This Country Soon—Working With Communist Organization

(By The Associated Press)
Washington, April 26.—"Big Bill" Haywood, former I. W. W. secretary, who is under sentence of imprisonment at Leavenworth, Kans., is in Russia without "a bit of doubt" and "not likely to return to this country soon," according to advices received by the department of justice, Attorney General Daugherty said today.

He is reported, the attorney general said, to be working as a sort of general manager for a Communist organization in Russia in charge of employment activities. In view of the existing relations between this country and Russia, Mr. Daugherty said, his department could not very well get Haywood at present. He indicated, however, that in his opinion, Haywood would eventually serve the sentence imposed upon him.

TAKE NAVY UNIFORMS OUT OF MOTH BALLS

WASHINGTON, April 26.—After having reposed with moth balls for a number of years, the principal articles of dress uniform formerly worn in the navy were restored to use today, by an order of Secretary Denby. It authorizes the wearing, on stated occasions, of the frock coat, full dress trousers, cocked hat, dress sword and sword belt and epaulettes. Special full dress, dinner dress and mess dress uniforms were not restored.

Will Be Guided By The Allies Decision

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 26.—Indication of the views of their governments with regard to the counter propositions the fact was not disclosed nor was there any intimation as to how American government officials viewed them. There was some evidence, however, that the statement in press dispatches from Paris that the German offer was believed to be unacceptable to France, caused little, if any surprise.

Discussion of the German memorandum is understood to have occupied much of a two hours' session today of President Harding's cabinet. What transpired in the cabinet room, remained a carefully guarded secret, those attending declining to discuss the subject.

After returning to the state department from the White House, Secretary Hughes sent invitations to the Allied diplomats to visit him in his office for a discussion of the German proposals. These invitations went out to the representatives of Great Britain, France, Belgium, Italy and Japan.

Baron de Marchienne, the Belgian ambassador, was among the first to call on the secretary. Each envoy was received separately and each conferred briefly, the series of visits being concluded in about an hour.

The superintendent of schools of New York City has recommended that the speech of Gen. Pershing, delivered at the recent "Americanism" meeting of the American Legion in Madison Square Garden, "be made the basis of careful reading and extended discussion in every high school in the city." It is a suggestion that could be adopted to advantage by every city in the United States.

Congressman Patrick H. Kelley of Michigan, the chairman of the appropriations sub-committee in charge of the naval appropriation bill, announces that the bill will be reintroduced in precisely the form in which it was vetoed by the former president in the closing hours of the last congress. It will carry approximately $395,000,000, of which about $90,000,000 will be for continuing the 1916 naval construction program. Mr. Kelley's bill will also provide for a reduction in the enlisted personnel of the navy from 143,000 to 100,000. It is understood that the senate will oppose any reduction below 120,000.

NOT SO VERY BAD

An official of a neighboring state not long ago referred to educational funds of Illinois as negatively. It was said that this state is far behind other states in its educational expenditures and the effort was made to show that even some southern states do more for their children than is done in Illinois. It is a fact that the per capita tax for education is not as large as in some states, but statistics on the subject are somewhat confusing, and when educational facilities in Illinois are actually compared with those of other states, one need not feel ashamed of Illinois.

PROTECT THE PAVEMENTS

The suggestion that heavy hauling should be kept from the asphalt pavements of Jacksonville is entirely reasonable. In many other cities certain thoroughfares are designated as boulevards and are closed to heavy traffic. Naturally teamsters choose the best pavements so long as they are not by ordinance barred from their use, and in this way these best pavements are used for commercial purposes, to the detriment of the property owners.

Something could well be done in this city for the control of traffic, and that without hardship to the team owners or drivers.

EXTENSIVE OILING PROGRAM

If the program in prospect is carried out in all the counties of the state, $5,000,000 will be spent this year for road oiling. The price of oil is now very much less than it was a year ago and the benefits of oiling have been pretty well demonstrated. One important benefit of road oiling is that a certain amount of draining and grading must be done at the same time, and this helps almost as much as the oiling.

Until the day of hard roads comes, some form of temporary road betterment must be adopted, and oiling seems to be the most logical. The prospect, by the way, for hard roads, is improving and it is entirely possible that a considerable mileage may be laid this year in Morgan county because of certain good influences at work. But at best, any extensive hard roads program will require years for its accomplishment, and the oiling and dragging process must prevail in the interim. It is in a rainy season like the present that the need for road improvement is especially impressed.

FIGURES WITHOUT PROOF

W. Jett Lanck, economist for the railway labor brotherhood, in documents filed with the wage board, makes all kinds of charges about inefficiency and extravagance in operation. He also resorts to the charges consistently of a capitalist combine arrayed against labor. He says that the interlocking directorships and the joint ownership of great financial organizations have made it possible for the railroads to be operated in a way tending to show that the earnings do not justify present wage scales.

It occurs to an unprejudiced observer that if the group of financiers had such absolute control of all the railroads that they have done a mighty poor job in financing and one wonders where the profit to them is in receiverships and in the crippled condition in which many roads are found today. Other claims made by the economist are unsupported with any testimony and the statement savors of an attempt to arouse class feeling rather than to present proof of claims made.

THE NON-PARTISAN CAMPAIGN

There are indications that the Democratic candidate for justice of the supreme court in the fourth judicial circuit is finding it increasingly difficult to maintain a non-partisan stand. With conditions varying so greatly in the various counties comprising the circuit it is not surprising that difficulties multiply.

In the circuit in which Adams county is included three Democratic candidates are opposing three Republican candidates and in this contest there is no question about the stand of the justice. In another circuit he is pleased to support non-partisan nominees and in still another certain Republicans have his allegiance.

To be nominated by a party convention and then to attempt a non-partisan campaign for the sake of expediency is a role with hazards.

GREAT D. A. R. CONGRESS HELD

Thirtieth National Gathering of the Organization Held at the National Capital — Miss Epler Attended.

Miss Effie Epler returned Tuesday from Washington, D. C., where she was in attendance at the 30th annual congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. There were nearly 3,000 delegates to the congress and it was one of the most notable gatherings in the history of the organization.

While in session the congress enthusiastically received the plan of the George Washington Memorial association to erect a national Victory Memorial building on the site granted by congress. It is proposed to raise a $10,000,000 building fund. The central feature of the memorial building will be an auditorium of spacious dimensions to be completely canopied by an acoustical dome three times the diameter of the dome of St. Peter's.

The Washington Star in referring to the closing events of the congress said:

"More than 1,000 delegates and national officers of the D. A. R. have been in convention here all week, attended the banquet at the Willard last night in honor of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general, and her national board of management. "After the dinner speeches were made, Mrs. Minor was in receipt of an ovation, and speaker after speaker praised her conduct of her first congress, and complimented her service in the chair. With the meeting of the national board of management, in Continental hall on Monday, everything incident to the thirtieth continental congress will be at an end."

Adjourns Singing Songs.
The congress adjourned at 1:30 yesterday afternoon with the singing of patriotic songs and a salvo of thanks and resolutions of appreciation that started off with a demonstration for President and Mrs. Harding, and included the speakers and entertainers, and ended with police and fire details. A substantial turn was given to these last as the congress voted to send contributions to the police and fire relief funds, as a token of gratitude.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING HELD TUESDAY
The Parent-Teacher Association of the David Prince school held a very interesting meeting Thursday evening in the school auditorium. Despite unfavorable weather conditions there was a good attendance.

Mrs. W. D. Roberts presided. Mrs. Hinrichsen of Springfield addressed the association her subject being, "Children of the State." She emphasized the fact that the community should stand back of the children keeping them in good health, environment and furnishing proper recreation.

A playlet entitled "April's Lady" was given by the pupils of the seventh grade English class, taught by Miss Cloyd. Miss Grassley's class gave a very interesting little play written by Elinor Mae Ames and Abbie Lee Young, illustrating slavery conditions in ancient times. A play entitled the "Minute" was given by the pupils of Miss McCullough's class. At this meeting the election of officers for the ensuing year was held, the following being chosen:

President—Mrs. W. D. Roberts. Vice president—Mrs. J. W. Walton.

Secretary—Miss Jennie Grassley. Following the program sandwiches and coffee were served.

OUR CITY WATERWORKS

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)

Member Illinois State Historical Society

Our City Waterworks
It seems scarcely possible that over half a century has elapsed since the agitation of the water works question began in Jacksonville.

After the war there was a decided era of growth in population, of building and of starting business enterprises here, and it was not surprising that enterprising citizens saw the need of a better supply of water.

It was then that the Chicago and Alton and Peoria, Pekin and Jacksonville (now Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis) railways were "in" here, and the Jacksonville Southeastern, or Farmers' road, was talked of or under way of construction.

Everything conspired to demand a good or reasonable quantity of water should be obtained under municipal control.

The foolish and wild-eyed opposition of many persons here, to the project now seems laughable or tragic.

The complexion of the city council and election of one or more mayors were affected by the discussion and opposition, just as, a few years ago, some short-sighted and narrow-minded people opposed the plan of getting a lasting and full supply from the Illinois river, when John A. Ayers and John R. Davis, mayor, were trying to secure that boon for us.

In 1869 or thereabouts, the question was at fever heat, and some city elections included for, or against water works, in the points voted on. Any one interested in the details can inquire of J. A. Ayers, S. W. Nichols, W. L. Fay, and others of the older citizens and business men of that day.

Winchester, April 26.—Judge Norman Jones is here to preside at the April term of the circuit court. Miss Delia Foley is the court reporter. The grand jury has been empaneled and a petty jury summoned.

Mrs. Nathan Wallace and daughters, Mrs. James Wainwright and Miss Leona Wallace were visitors Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers in Beardstown.

A two weeks' series of meetings will commence at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Bergen and Prof. Santell, singer, will have charge of the services, and it is the hope that much interest will be shown on the part of the congregation and friends of the church.

Mrs. Alva Stainsforth and little son left Tuesday for their home in Valier, Ill. Her mother, Mrs. Charles Coultas, accompanied them home.

A high school declamatory contest will be held at the Lyric Thursday evening. There will be seven contestants and the evening's program will also include a number of fine musical selections.

George W. Mosher left Tuesday morning for St. Louis to attend the Eastman school of photography which will continue for a period of three days.

Miss Anna Munze returned Tuesday from a seven weeks' visit in Monmouth and Chicago.

Dr. Henry Leib and brother, John Leib, left Tuesday noon for Litchfield, having received word Ayers, J. O. King and others. They had also been active in establishing the gas works here—which began enlightening things January first, 1858.

In connection with building the latter a man named Delley, from Philadelphia, was here, and he gave attention to a survey of the water possibilities about Jacksonville. Later on, encouraged by Delley's suggestions, J. O. King, R. C. Crampton and S. W. Nichols made a survey of the surrounding places, and agitation to that effect brought about a call for a city election on the subject in June, 1869. The project carried by a majority of fifty or sixty votes. But it was some years before anything decided was brought about, or work begun. Meantime, as alderman from the Second Ward, and as mayor, Major Geo. M. McConnell had efficiently advanced the good cause.

The city issued ten per cent. bonds for the work of construction, which were afterwards refunded in 1876, through the instrumentality of the city council, at 8 per cent.

The Works
As built, consisted of the impounding reservoir, at the "Pulham ravine," capacity—45,000,000 gallons, and the distributing reservoir—still in use on College Hill—with a capacity of 2,500,000 gallons. There was also two pumps, at the present pumping works, eight and a third miles of pipe and sixty-six hydrants. All this, with the right of way, etc., etc., cost $150,000.

This low price was possible because the undertaking was made and accomplished at a time when things were getting lower and lower in price, owing to the business situation following the financial "panic" of September, 1873. The works were completed and in operation January 20, 1875.

He meets with many adventures until he is adopted into the home of a kindly lawyer. The lad repays the man's kindness by opening his heart to a wealth of love, the presence of which he had never before suspected.

Brides—don't pawn all Hubby's junk till you find out how valuable it is. A comedy of Newly-Weds in duplicate apartments, with a busy fire-escape between. A little fire escape was a dangerous thing, when his wife learned the way to the apartment overhead. She shouldn't have climbed a fire escape and gone into her neighbor's apartment unless she expected to start trouble. She traded off a piece of Hubby's junk and found that she had got nothing but trouble in its place. Dorothy was a dear little bride, but even her doctor-husband couldn't cure her of the swapping fever. Events had to work the cure. How could she guess that when she traded off Hubby's pet piece of junk to a peddler that she would have to go through so much trouble to get it back? What's a fire escape between friends? Pooh, nothing! But you see, these folks, in duplicate apartments, were absolute strangers. Yet they just wouldn't stay off that fire escape. Trouble? We'll say so. Husbands, it's a good plan to lock up your favorite treasures before you start off to work in the morning. Otherwise Wife may trade 'em off to the junk man before night. And if they happen to be treasures worth thousands of dollars, which you are storing for your best friend, it may cause complications.

NEW PROPOSALS OF GERMANY MADE PUBLIC

Improvement of her financial and economic situation. The redemption of the remaining sums will have to take therefore a variable form, depending upon an improvement. It would be necessary to draw up a scheme to be based on an index to be used should the situation become worse.

Five. In order to clear herself as quickly as possible of the balance, Germany is willing to cooperate with all her strength in the reconstruction of the devastated regions; she regards reconstruction as the most urgent basis of reparations and the most direct remedy for mitigating the hardships of war and the hatred between peoples. She will construct towns, villages and townships designated, or co-operate by supplying labor and material, or in any other way agreeable to the Allies.

Six. With the same object in view Germany is disposed to pay in kind to state which were victims of the war, in addition to reconstruction, according to a scheme as far as possible purely commercial.

To Give Proof of Good Faith.

Seven. In order to give undeniable proof of her good faith, Germany is prepared immediately to place at the disposal of the reparations commission 250,000,000 marks, comprising 150,000,000 in gold and silver in foreign exchange and 100,000,000 gold marks in treasury notes, redeemable within three months in foreign exchange or foreign securities.

Eighth. In the event the United States and the Allies so desire, Germany is willing, according to the extent of her ability and capacity, to assume the Allied obligations to the United States.

Nine. Germany proposes to negotiate, with the assistance of experts, as to the way in which German deliveries for reparations will be reckoned as against the total of Germany's debt, particularly respecting the way in which the price value will be fixed.

Ten. As security for the credits accorded her, Germany is willing to pledge public revenues and properties, in a manner to be determined between the contracting parties.

Eleven. With the acceptance of these proposals, Germany's other reparations and obligations will be annulled and all German private property in foreign countries will be released.

Twelve. Germany declares the present proposals only capable of being carried out if the system of penalties is discontinued forthwith and she is freed from all unproductive outlays now imposed on her and that she be given freedom of trade.

opinion arising from an examination of the proposals, the German government recommends that they be submitted for examination to a commission of recognized experts acceptable to all the interested governments. She declares herself ready in advance to accept as binding any decision reached by this commission.

Should any other form of proposals, in the view of the American government, facilitate further negotiations of the question, the German government would ask to have its attention drawn to any points in which alteration is, in the opinion of the American government, desirable. The German government would also welcome other proposals from the American government.

Finally, the note says: The German government is too deeply convinced of the fact that the peace and welfare of the world are dependent upon a speedy, just and fair solution of the reparations question not to do everything within its power in order to enable the American government to direct the attention of the Allied governments to the matter.

STRICT EXAMINATIONS FOR CITIZENS TRAINING CAMP

Emphasis will be placed by the War Department on the physical examination of candidates for the Citizens' Military Training Camps to be conducted this summer by the War Department throughout the country. These examinations will be made as thorough as possible in order to determine the ability of the candidate to undergo the training, and to discover slight physical defects which may be corrected by proper measures in the camps, and a continuance if necessary, by the candidate after the camps are closed.

Studies of the draft statistics made in the office of the surgeon-general show that every year nearly 400,000 youths attain their majority with physical defects, which if permitted to be uncorrected, will impair their efficiency and usefulness in later life. To the casual observer, however, the vast majority of them appear to be physically normal. Examinations at the summer training camps will disclose physical defects in the youth who will be informed as to what measures should be taken for the correction.

Medical officers at the training camps, who discover a youth with poorly developed chest, weak back, falter arches, or a faulty manner of walking, will immediately advise corrective measures.

Mrs. J. W. Walton returned Tuesday from Phillipsburg, Pa., where she was summoned on account of the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Fred Holbrook.

HE WILL ALWAYS PRAISE TANLAC

Freeport Man Says He Was Helpless as a Baby When He Began Taking It.

"Nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac, and now I am just like a brand new man," said Clarence Gamber, of 101 Liberty St., Freeport, Ill.

"At the time I began taking Tanlac I was in such a weakened condition I often had to lie down to rest as many as two or three times a day. For a long time I had been subject to attacks which often kept me in as long as two weeks, almost helpless as a baby. My stomach had been out of fix for a long time. After every meal I would bloat all up with gas, and often my breath was so short that I actually fainted. Besides this I had rheumatism, and at times my legs and arms were swollen to almost twice their normal size. I suffered terribly, especially in damp weather, when the muscles and leaders of my limbs would draw up so tight I couldn't straighten my arms or legs out. At times it seemed that I just could not endure the agony. I also had sharp pains all through my back, and my kidneys bothered me a great deal, so that my sleep was badly broken.

"One day while one of those bad attacks was on me and I was lying there helpless as a baby, a friend of mine came in to see me and recommended that I try Tanlac. I didn't have much faith in any medicine, so many had failed to do me any good, but I finally decided to see if there was anything in Tanlac for me. Before I finished my first bottle I noticed a change in my condition. My appetite had a new start and my stomach trouble and rheumatism began to lose their grip. I have taken eight bottles now and all my pains are entirely gone. My aches never bother me the least bit, and in fact, my whole system seems to be in the best of condition. I certainly am grateful for what Tanlac has done for me, and I'll stand by this medicine as long as I live."—Adv.

TRUTONA—the Perfect Tonic

According to statistics the death rate in Jacksonville is higher than any other city of its size in the state. This should not be. Jacksonville should be the healthiest place on the map. Two things govern health—hygienic conditions and medicine. One of the best medicines we know of to tone up the system and keep it in condition to ward off disease is TRUTONA—the perfect tonic.

Prominent People Testify to its Merits

Everyone knows that a man in my profession could not and would not recommend a medicine unless it were really one of merit," says Dr. J. Richards, a prominent physician of Western Tennessee for the past fifty years, who lives at Kenton. "I've personally tried Trutona and duly commend it as an appetizer, strengthener, system builder and nerve tonic—in short, a preparation of real medicinal merit."

"I've taken Trutona and it has certainly proven its merit, I can safely recommend this medicine to anyone," were the words of Judge J. L. Ferrill of the Henderson, Ky., police court and highly respected resident of that city in a recent public statement. Could anyone ask better proof of a medicine's merit than the foregoing from a staid Kentucky jurist?

LIBERTY OF ACTION GIVEN BRIAND BY THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES

Vote Confidence in Government by 424 to 29

PARIS, April 26.—The chamber of deputies today gave Premier Briand full liberty of action after hearing his report on the reparations conference and his declaration.

"If on May 1, satisfactory proposals, with acceptable guarantees, are not made by the German government, the Ruhr will be occupied,"

The chamber voted confidence in the government, 424 to 29, with 59 deputies abstaining from voting.

J. Briand said he had full confidence that if the Washington government decided to transmit the German counter proposals they would be such as to safeguard the interest of the allies on reparations.

"But," he added, "there is another violation of the treaty of Versailles which Germany cannot invoke the impossibility of fulfilling, namely, disarmament, which she has failed to carry out."

In his statement M. Briand said that France and Great Britain were completely in agreement so far as the principle of coercive measures were concerned.

The premier declared that the German proposal that Washington mediate "was another dodge to gain time," and continued:

"We have confidence in the loyalty and perspicuity of the government of the United States to take only such initiatives as it is certain are in conformity with the interests of the allies. But so far as France is concerned, our dispositions are taken for the day when the debt becomes due."

Wrinkles Coming? Here's the Answer

The skin can be brought back to its original plumpness and vigor by the following formula. An astonishing result is the quick disappearance of wrinkles, big, crow's feet, and lines of age. It is simple and can be prepared in a few moments, by adding to half a pint of water one tablespoonful of glycerine and two ounces of epitol, obtained from your druggist. This takes years from your appearance, and is always sure and positive in its work if you will apply it liberally every day.

And If the Hair Is Thinning

Strengthening and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as if by magic. The new vigor of the hair will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol, which can be secured at any drug store in the original one-ounce package. This can be mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water, or with witch hazel, if you prefer. It contains no oil whatever.

To Cleanse Hair and Scalp

As to head-wash, you are advised against using soap or the many shampoos sold, because of the alkali they contain. This dries up hair secretions. Get a package of eggol at the drug store and dissolve a teaspoonful of it in half a cup of water. You can get enough eggol for twenty-five washes for a dozen or more head-washes. It is magic in cleansing hair and scalp and aids wonderfully in making hair grow.

HOUSE QUILTS WORK WITHOUT REACHING VOTE ON NAVAL BILL

All Day Debate on Disarmament Prevents Any Action

KELLEY PLEADS TO LEAVE PRESIDENT ALONE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—After an all-day fight over disarmament, the house was forced to quit work tonight without reaching a vote on the naval appropriation bill, because of the demand of members for time in which to air their views.

At the end of the long debate, there was pending an amendment providing that no part of the appropriation should go into new construction until the president had called an international conference to consider limitation of armament. The amendment, proposed by Representative Connolly, Democrat, Texas, was precisely like one offered when the bill was before the house in the closing days of the last session by Representative Brooks, Republican, Illinois, and rejected by a vote of about five to one. Leaders said it would be thrown out by a similar vote when the bill is taken up again Thursday.

The disarmament discussion broke early in the session, after Representative Knight, Republican, Ohio, had launched an attack against the bill. The Ohio member announced he would vote against the bill because of the contemplated expenditure of $90,000,000 for new battleships, the general need of economy and the alleged questionable advantages of capital fighting ships in modern naval warfare. The speech started a veritable whirlwind of talk.

Stops Disarmament Debate

Seeing where the house was heading, Chairman Kelley of the sub-committee of appropriations, in charge of the measure, tried to stop it, with a plea that the real disarmament debate be held back until the section relating to new construction had been reached. The chairman's plea prevailed, after a sharp clash in which Representative Huddleston, Democrat, Alabama, supported Mr. Knight, and declared general opposition to big army, coast defense and navy appropriations.

In the general disarmament discussion and in the amendments ruled out, the question of limitation specifically involved the United States, Great Britain and Japan. Advocates of the bill insisted that the government should go ahead with its building plan and then when a navy, second to none, was within reach, it would be in better position to urge a halt.

Pointing out what he regarded as big objections to a cessation of building, Chairman Kelley pleaded for rejection of all proposals relating to armament conferences with other nations.

"Let the president alone," he shouted. "Let him work out a way with hands untied. If the president can hit upon a plan to lift the burden of armament, his will be the greatest administration our country has ever had, regardless of what else might be done."

Turning to those insisting upon a program which, he said, would hold back work of navy building until a conference had been called and then starting it with a rush once the call was issued, Mr. Kelley declared:

"Don't, I urge you, place the United States in a position of showing bad faith—calling nations to discuss a reduction of navies, and instantly starting work upon a greater navy for itself."

Earnings in First Quarter of Calendar Year Show Decrease

NEW YORK, April 26.—The business of the United States Steel corporation for the first quarter of the calendar year, as disclosed in the report of the directors issued today, testified anew to the backward conditions in that industry.

Total earnings for that period amounted to $32,286,722, as compared with $43,877,862 in the final quarter of 1920.

Analysis of the returns by months shows a pronounced declining trend. For January, before charges were deducted, earnings amounted to $17,073,067. In February earnings fell to $10,842,031 and in March further shrinkage to $8,426,908 was reported.

SEEK TO GET MEN IN CUSTODY IN BASEBALL SCANDAL

Attell and Sullivan Reported to Have Fled to Canada

CHICAGO, April 26.—A general roundup of men indicted in connection with the 1919 world series baseball scandal has been started by state officials and federal aid will be sought in apprehending several persons who have not yet given bond. It was announced today following reports that some of the alleged conspirators had fled to foreign countries.

George E. Gorman, assistant state's attorney, tonight said he had information that Abe Attell, former champion world's featherweight fighter, and Joseph J. (Sport) Sullivan, known in the east as a gambler, had fled to Canada. Others in the case were reported to state officials to have made plans to go to Mexico or to be there now, Mr. Gorman said.

Mr. Gorman said that since there were no treaties with Canada under which a man could be extradited for a misdemeanor, federal officials would be asked to request the Canadian government to deport Attell and Sullivan as undesirable if they are found in that country.

A. P. IS LAUDED BY PRESIDENT HARDING AT ANNUAL MEETING

Expresses Hope for Continued Good Relations and Support

(By The Associated Press)
New York, April 26.—Praise of American newspapers by President Harding and an address by John W. Davis, formerly ambassador to Great Britain, featured the annual luncheon of The Associated Press held today in connection with the annual business meeting.

In a letter read at the luncheon, President Harding lauded the course of the press during the war and expressed the hope that his administration would continue to deserve the support accorded it thus far by the newspapers.

Mr. Davis, making his first appearance before the members as general counsel for The Associated Press, had kind words for impartial truthful news gathering as he had found it exemplified by The Associated Press and, referring to the importance of foreign news digressed to give personal opinions on several matters affecting foreign relations of the United States. He urged that a treaty should be ratified by a majority vote of the senate, instead of two-thirds and that there be adequate compensation for the diplomatic and consular service.

At the business meeting the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved that the members of The Associated Press in convention assembled, tender their thanks to the president, board of directors and officers of The Associated Press for their efficient work during the past year, which has made The Associated Press the greatest news gathering organization in the world and a credit to the United States."

HAWAIIAN RACE IS BEING REBORN

Is Being Reinvigorated by the Infusion of Alien Blood—Pure Hawaiian Death Rate Largest on Islands.

HONOLULU, T. H., April 26.—(By The A. P.)—The Hawaiian race, which with the Polynesians in general, has been regarded as a dying people, is being re-born and re-invigorated by infusion of alien blood, according to statistics just compiled by Louis R. Sullivan, of the New York museum of natural history, now attached to the Bishop museum in Honolulu.

Mr. Sullivan has just completed analysis of 14,569 marriages in the islands, selected at random, and his findings in some cases have been surprises to scientists.

According to the tables, more American men in the territory marry women of blood foreign to their own than marry American or British women. The Japanese are not, as has been supposed, the most prolific race in the islands, but are surpassed in this regard by Portuguese, Porto Ricans and Spanish. Of American women, more than one in every six living in the islands marry Hawaiians, part-Hawaiians and others of blood strange to their ancestry. Of all the racial groups the Korean women represent the only one which refuses to mix blood, not a single case of a Korean woman marrying a man other than a Korean has been discovered.

As a whole, the tables indicate, the part-Hawaiian group has a tendency to consolidate, rather than scatter, since of Caucasian Hawaiian males who marry, 32.7 per cent marry back into the full-blooded Hawaiian strain while only 13.8 per cent take white wives and the remainder, either inbred among their own kind or marry at large. Of Asiatic-Hawaiian strain, only 4.3 into the Asiatic strain and a negligible proportion into the Caucasian strain.

The result, so far as the Hawaiian race is concerned, is said to be a new racial group, found to a high degree, still abnormally susceptible to civilization's diseases, but with much higher resistance powers than the old Hawaiian stock and visibly adding to its numbers.

While the women of Korea lead all other males and females in the island in marrying within their own race, there are other groups which are a close second in this respect. Only 6.3 of one per cent of Japanese women contract out-marriages, or unions with men of other races, while 0.7 of one per cent of Japanese men so pick their mates. The percentage for the Chinese is 6 per cent for the women and 41.5 for the men; Americans 17.9 for the women and 51.7 for the men; Portuguese 32.3 women, 13.6 men; Hawaiian 49.5 women, 19.5 men.

The pure Hawaiian death rate is the highest in the islands, 13.48 per thousand annually although the pure Hawaiian birth rate is nearly twice as high as American, British and other whites. Scientists recognize that susceptibility to diseases of civilization is responsible for the disappearance of the pure Hawaiian race, but the figures just made public by Mr. Sullivan are the first to show that inter-marriage is rebuilding the old race into a stronger, more hardy people.

BLACKBURN WILL PLACED ON RECORD

Executors Given Authority For Public or Private Sale of Property.

The will of the late Edmund Blackburn was filed for probate Monday in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs. The original document was made November 21, 1899, with John A. Ayers and C. G. Rutledge as witnesses to the signature.

There were five codicils to the will, made at intervals from August 12, 1914, to November 13, 1920. The effect of the will is to place all property in the hands of the executors, Sarah L. Blackburn and Fletcher J. Blackburn, son and daughter of the testator, to sell at public or private sale, as they may deem best. The executors are directed to pay to the widow of the testator during her lifetime the income from one-third of the property. The remainder is to be divided in equal amounts among the sons and daughters of the testator, any sums which may have been advanced to any of the children to be charged against them in making settlement. The children are to share equally in the estate, except that a special bequest of $1,000 is made to a daughter, Miss Flora Blackburn.

Since the making of the original will the home farm of 181 acres in the Ebenezer neighborhood has been sold and the proceeds of that farm sale will be handled by the executors, in addition to other funds and to the realty.

OILING QUESTION BEFORE THE COUNCIL

If Property Owners Will Contribute Small Amount All Unpaved Streets Can Be Oiled Twice This Year

At the regular session of the city council next Monday night, the question of the oiling of city streets will be up for consideration. Thru the oil tax levied the city will have available for street oiling work approximately $9,000. There are 28 miles of unpaved streets within the city of Jacksonville and it will take about $12,000 to oil them all.

W. H. Cocking recently made a proposal to oil the streets at a cost of eight cents per gallon, and it is by the use of this figure that the estimate is made of a total cost of $12,000 for oiling all of the streets.

As the highway committee, of which Alderman Williamson is the chairman, reported to the council last Monday night, the question which confronts the council now is how to make an equitable distribution of the oil. It is recognized that it is very desirable to oil all of the streets, but this is manifestly not possible thru the $9,000 fund now available. It has been figured out that if property owners on unpaved streets are willing to make a payment of five cents per running foot toward this oiling fund, that a sufficient sum will be available to make it possible to oil all of the streets twice this season.

Mr. Cocking has offered to send a solicitor along the different streets to ascertain if property owners are not willing to enter upon this agreement which will mean a comparatively small cost for each one.

After the canvass is made the property owners on a street agree to the proposal, the city will proceed with the oiling work. It should be understood that this plan has not been settled upon but is one for the consideration of the council and property owners. Accordingly Mayor Crabtree and the aldermen are hoping that there will be a goodly number of citizens present at the council session next Monday night to discuss the proposal.

STORM DID GREAT DAMAGE TO TELEPHONES

A statement issued by the Illinois-Bell Telephone Co., and received by Manager Taylor here, gives some details of the damage done to company property by last Saturday's storm. It is estimated that this damage will exceed $500,000, the area involved being about 100 miles north and south and extending across the state in a northeasterly direction. In this area 5,700 telephone poles were blown over and lines between a number of towns were entirely down, resulting in destruction of 77 miles of toll circuit.

An example of company efficiency has been shown in the rapid restoration of service, and numerous crews have been at work both night and day. Now service has been restored at least in some degree, between practically all points. Locally very little damage was done except for the fact that service in some of the farmers lines was interrupted.

DIRECTORS OF SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE MET

Report of Miss Fowler, Superintendent, Gives Interesting Facts About Work of League.

A meeting of the directors of the Social Service league was held last night in the league rooms. The session was well attended and reports given indicated that the league is doing some very important work. The report of Miss Fowler, the superintendent, was the principal one presented.

The board concurred in the suggestion made by Miss Fowler that one phase of the work of the league be presented in detail at each board meeting. At last night's meeting the problem of caring for transients was discussed, and some very interesting facts brought forth. During the past month seven non-residents of the city have applied to the Social Service league for aid. In two of these cases the Red Cross co-operated in caring for the transients. Perhaps the most frequent call from transients is for aid to make it possible for them to return to their own home communities. In some cases this sort of service was performed, while in others work was secured for the non-residents.

Mention was made of the splendid co-operation given by the Red Cross and tuberculosis clinic. It was emphasized that co-operation on the part of these social agencies had greatly increased the effectiveness of the league's work. A number of individuals have also co-operated with the league, contributing professional services and in other ways aiding in the work which the organization is carrying on. The report indicated that there have been fewer juvenile court cases the past month than has been true in some previous months.

A Private Surgical Hospital

Thru its Public Health Department Says:—

"Delivering the Goods"

Not a day passes that someone doesn't ask us to tell how we built up this great surgical work. The answer is simple and easy: "Delivering the Goods." This institution beginning twelve years ago in a small frame building of six rooms and three beds and one nurse with a determination to see what "Results" will do—has grown to a modern structure of forty rooms, twenty beds and eight nurses, and when the present new addition is completed, we will have sixty-three rooms, forty-one beds. "Results Beat All Arguments." Life is dear to any man, except the man without reason (the fool) and it behooves every one not to give up his life until every possible resource of saving it has been exhausted. Consciousness of this fact has caused us to go further than the average hospital to provide and equip ourselves with every possible means of preventing "Death," hence our lowest "Death Rate" of any surgical institution in the state. We have now set out to beat our own "Record." Now let me say to you whose life is put in danger by diseased parts that should be removed or by suffering not yet mastered, to do as more than three thousand others have done—"beat the path that leads to 323 West Morgan St." This last resort may mean the extension of your life. We are not making this appeal on the account of our social position or racial standing for you would say that it is a pitiful confession of intellectual inferiority on the part of any man, white or black, to appeal to the sympathies and prejudices of his race or social set for professional preferment. But our appeal is based upon the fact that "Results of your work will tell the people more about you than all arguments or biased opinions," for they are cheap. Please remember, cheap things are not good—good things are not cheap; you get about all you pay for. Cultivate your mind to associate the idea of surgical operation with the New Home Sanitarium always.

WILL CELEBRATE GRANT'S BIRTHDAY

Galena to Observe 99th Anniversary of Former Citizen, Twice President of United States.

Galena, Ill., April 26.—(By A. P.)—Galena will celebrate next Wednesday the 99th anniversary of the birth of its former citizen, General U. S. Grant, in a more pretentious manner than ever before. Senator J. Thomas Heflin of Alabama will be the orator of the day.

Galena has observed Grant's birthday in fitting manner since the General came to the front. This year veterans of all wars will be honored and the day will be given over to them, the active part of the ceremony being assigned to the Herman Fichthorn Post, of the American Legion.

As customary the patriotic street parade will be made thru the principal streets, after which the exercises will be held in beautiful Grant park. Some of the most prominent men in national history have delivered addresses in Galena on Grant's birthday in years past.

It was from Galena that Grant went into the war. There he left his wife and children. There he returned to borrow the money to buy himself a uniform as commander of the first Illinois regiment that went direct to the war. There also the first editor of the nation saw his merit.

A more auspicious entry into the great conflict than that of its final arbiter could hardly be imagined.

Failed in Business.

Grant had come to Galena the year before, in April of 1860, after he had been unable to make a success of business in St. Louis. He had gone thru West Point, had fought in the Mexican war and after nine years' service in the regular army had dropped out. At 38 he was head of a family of six and unable to provide for them.

To his father, a successful tanner, he appealed, and was recommended to his younger brothers, who were running a wholesale leather store in Galena. If he made good in his first year, he was to be received as a partner. Meantime his salary was $50 a month. He rented a little house at $100 a year, and went to work. His duties were chiefly clerical. He applied himself, was steady, got a grip of the business, spent his evenings at home and made a few acquaintances and no close friends.

Within a week after the attack on Fort Sumter Galena held its first enlistment meeting. Captain Grant was the only army man in town and some one called on him to preside. He was surprised and moved forward with embarrassment. He announced at that meeting his intention of re-enlisting.

Declines Captaincy. The company that Galena raised—Captain Grant was asked to take charge of. He declined its captaincy, feeling that his years of experience in the regular army had better be used in command of a regiment. Hitherto little known or observed in the town, he became the center of the city's military preparation, drilling the company and seeing it was properly uniformed. When it flamboyantly left for the state capital, he quietly followed in its rear to the Springfield train.

Captain Grant's rebuffs at the state capital are another story. Discouraged, he came back home for a visit. There Mr. Houghton, editor of the Galena Gazette, after a talk in which he got to know the man, wrote in his paper: "We want among our young soldiers the influence of the rare leadership of men like Captain Grant."

But recognition from the powers that be was still tardy, and after it came and Grant was given command of the regiment drawn from Macon, Cumberland, Platt, Douglas, Moultrie, Edgar, Clay, Clark, Crawford and Jasper counties which went into the war as the 21st Illinois Volunteer—he still lacked horse, sword and uniform. And it was to Galena that he again repaired, on leave of absence, to borrow $200 to properly outfit himself. Twenty years after he had landed unobserved in the little city he again sought it out—this time full of honors as twice president of the United States, on the close of his celebrated tour around the world.

EXTemporaneous SPEAKING TRYOUTS TONIGHT

Tryouts will be held tonight for the extemporaneous speakers who are to represent the Jacksonville high school in the Intellectual Congress which are held in connection with the high school athletic meets. Extemporaneous speaking has never been offered before as an event in the intellectual contests but considerable interest is being shown in it this year. This kind of speaking requires quick, clear, concise thinking and is one of the best forms of intellectual training that our schools have to offer.

It was at first thought that a great many students would enter the contest but owing to work on the senior play and other things, several of them have been obliged to give it up. However, there will be about ten students who will take part in the tryouts this evening in the high school auditorium.

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have had it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bed ridden, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from such forms of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

TRACTOR MEANS GREAT SAVING FOR FARMER

University of Illinois Bulletin Gives Figures Showing How Use of Tractor Reduces Operating Costs on Farms.

The successful farmer of the future will be the one who aims at high ideals; the one who makes a study of his work; the one who makes farming a business and writes it with a capital B.

Slipshod methods, hit and miss chances will not survive. Our government found in its investigation that the cost of raising wheat varied 500 per cent on different farms. How long would a business last if the cost was 500 per cent over his competitor? No; we must use factory ideas—more efficiency, a greater production at a less cost. Old ideas must vanish and up-to-date methods prevail. We must all pull together or all is lost. Our freedom, yours and mine, hangs in the balance.

A prospective tractor user should study his problem, he should satisfy himself that it will make him a profit. The farmer does not always obtain sound, solid advice when paying for it or from a friend. Facts are what he must dig out for himself. He should take time to study his University Bulletin.

Cost of Maintaining Horse

The University of Illinois, Division of Mechanics, shows that the tractor reduces the hired help expense from 10 per cent to 50 per cent. It shows that it takes 8 1-2 acres of 18 1-2 that a horse as an average crops, to maintain the horse. It shows 10 years to be the average useful life of the horse, and the average 180-acre farm in Illinois maintains nine head to operate the farm, but the entire nine head only work six full days, eight work 20 days, seven work 80 days and six for 28 days, one team being in use nearly all the time. Fifty-three per cent of the time worked is in the three spring months.

A tractor that will take the place of five head of these nine would net a saving in feed of $783.00, and the sale of these five horses would more than pay for a motor tool. We feel that we could tire you with figures, but wish to call your attention to an interesting fact which is now the subject of study by government experts, which is, "How much feed can be saved by reason of the horse still remaining on the farm and not being used for such heavy work as is done by the tractor?"

No accurate figures have yet been published, but we are informed they will show from 25 per cent to 40 per cent. Let us then take the lesser figure, 25 per cent, and on five horses we have a saving of $198.00 for feed alone besides saving of manual labor in caring for them.

Does Work Horse Cannot Do

Farm Bulletin No. 1003 shows that on an average a tractor is used from 30 to 50 days per year, doing such work as a horse cannot do. Again a western college, in sending questionnaires to farmers, found upon their return 79 per cent of the tractor users plowed 2 inches deeper than they ever did with horses and at times when a horse could not do the work at all. This made an average increase in their yield of 25 per cent and more per acre.

The secret of success is still and always will be whether on the farm or in the factory "greater production at a less price." No matter how long the speculative market may go, production will continue and as long as demand exists and it will continue to exist, prices will eventually find the proper and fair level.

Now we need only more consecrated thought and co-operation to bring us out of the troubles we now have. Now, altogether, we must push the load up the hill to success.

GERMAN FACTORIES

HAVE LARGE PROFITS
Duesseldorf—(By The A. P.)—Enormous and still increasing profits compared with those made in 1914 are being made in the German coal, iron, machinery, textile paper, glass and electrical industries, according to an article in Duesseldorf Lokal Zeitung.

The paper quotes the reports of numerous companies, among them being one manufacturing copper and brass tubing and plate at Duisburg which paid a dividend of 24 per cent and a bonus of 20 per cent. Its shares which were quoted in Berlin at 157 at the end of 1919 are now 620.

A 12 percent dividend declared by the Kammern Spinning Works of Duesseldorf was not only ten per cent of the profits earned, says the German newspaper. In the ten years previous this company had regularly declared a dividend of only eight per cent.

A similar company declared in 1920 a dividend of 40 per cent as compared with one of 11 per cent in the three preceding years.

NEW GOVERNMENT FOR GREENLAND

Danes Formulating New System for That Land—Eskimo Is Problem.

Copenhagen—The Danish government is trying to formulate a new system of government for its colony of Greenland but the Royal Commission appointed for that purpose has been unable thus far to agree whether the Eskimos of that far northern land shall be allowed to have free trade with all nations.

King Christian is to visit Greenland in June, the first time a Danish King has ever visited that colony, and the commission hopes to reach an agreement in time to enable him to announce the new plan of government when he is greeted by the Eskimos.

A well-known Greenland explorer, who is not a member of the commission, told the correspondent that one section of the commission was holding out for free trade between the Greenland Eskimos and the nationals of all countries. "This section," he added, "rightly says that the present system of the Danish state granting a monopoly to a single company, even of this company is managed by Danish state officials and for all practical purposes is a government department, is a direct violation of all democratic principles."

"Without any competition, no company, and particularly a company managed by state officials could possibly be expected to obtain for products of the natives the same high prices as would be obtainable in the open market. Monopoly never bred efficiency."

"On the other hand, the other section of the Royal Commission asserts that the Eskimo is a child and must be treated like a child. That intoxicating liquor and other of the 'blessings' of civilization must be kept away from him, or he will go to rack and ruin."

Very Greenland settlement has been visited by illegal traders who have shamelessly taken advantage of the confiding nature of the Eskimo. For a bottle of vile spirits, or a row of glass beads these 'traders' have robbed the natives of bearskins and other products of great value. So a grandmotherly trade restriction may not be right in principle but certainly in practice."

HOLLAND WILL ENCOURAGE TRAVEL

The Hague—(By The A. P.)—To encourage tourist travel in Holland this summer the Dutch government has removed many of the passport restrictions which American tourists met here a year ago.

Visas are now granted which are valid for six months, without necessity of securing new ones for entering and leaving the country during that period, and registration with the police is no longer necessary for travelers from America, unless they remain longer than one month.

Belgium has made similar arrangements, eliminating so far as possible the necessity for frequent trips to consuls, etc., but because the United States charges a fee of $10 for vizing the passport of a foreigner, Belgium retaliates by making an equal charge for Americans, although travelers of other nationalities pay a much smaller fee.

STORM DAMAGE AT WHITE HALL MONDAY

White Hall, April 26.—A storm of cyclonic proportions set in at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening, doing considerable damage to trees and wires about town. The residence of Donald Strang, immediately north of town, was partly unroofed and the fence damaged. A stack was blown down at the drain tile works, and this will probably hasten the decision of the management of the plants of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware Co., to suspend operations for repairs. The rainfall totalled 1.15 inches. At Patterson, seven miles northwest of White Hall, some houses were unroofed.

O'Donnell Motor Co.

Illinois Phone 423

Bell 373

To the motorist who has quit guessing about tires —

ALONG about this time of year a man finds his motor- ing neighbors getting anxious about their tires. With folks expecting old tires to "pop" any minute, there comes the question of what kind of new ones to buy.

U. S. Tires are answering a lot of questions like this nowadays.

The U. S. Tire following embraces two kinds of tire buyers.

Those who started with quality first, and have never bought anything else but the quality standard tire.

Those who came to quality first only after dabbled with "bargains," "rebates," "job lot" and "surplus stock" tires.

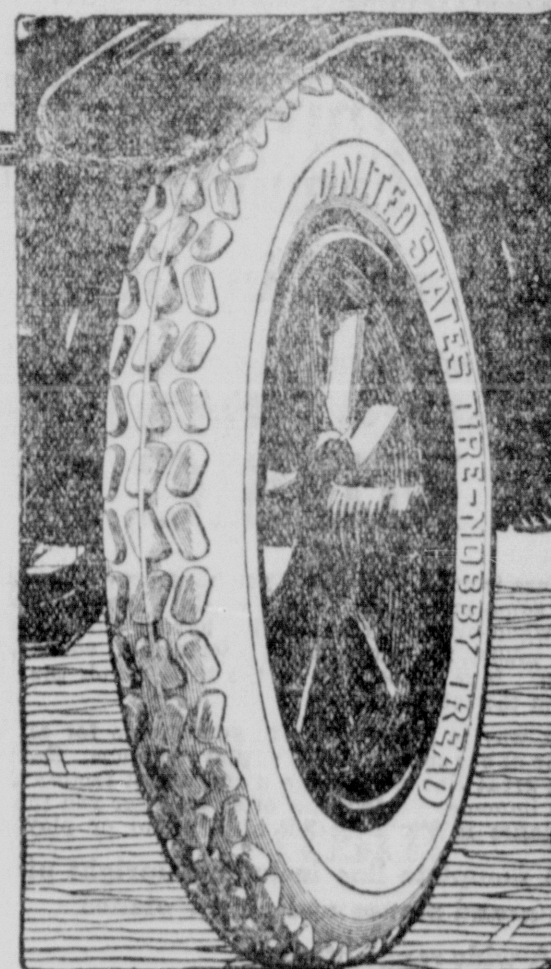

Getting one hundred cents value on the dollar in tire buying is a straight-forward business proposition—not guess-work or a game of wits.

The most essential man for you to know today is the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

He gets his U. S. Tires straight from his neighboring U. S. Tire Factory Branch—one of 92 such Branches established and maintained all over the country by the U. S. Tire makers.

He is the man who can give you fresh, live tires—not stuff shipped to him from some point where it did not sell, but new tires of current production.

Giving the same quality, selection and price-advantage to the owner of the medium weight car as the big car owner gets. With equal service and buying opportunity whether he lives in the smaller localities or the greater centers of population.

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity—two diagonal rows of oblong studs, interlocking in their grip on the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

"The most essential man for you to know today in the tire business is your local U. S. Tire Dealer."

INSIDE STORIES OF AMBUSHES IN IRELAND
Stories of How the Irish Republican Army Trap and Kill British Constables.
LONDON—(By The Associated Press.)—Inside stories of the am-bushes laid by the Irish Republican army to trap and kill squads of British constables in Ireland are disclosed in the reports from Irish brigade commanders which have just been given out at the headquarters of the Volunteers of Dublin. Most of these attacks have been reported by the British but the Irish accounts are now given for the first time.
They give the details of desperate fights in which, sometimes, the little British commands have been decimated and at other times the Irish have been driven off with severe losses, for the Irish Volunteers occasionally run into a counter trap and find themselves exposed to the withering blast of a machine-gun.
These reports show the methods employed to carry on the guerrilla fighting, the hurried calls to assemble the Irish attackers, efforts to surprise the British constables in some isolated spot and tell of the use of mines to block the passage of motor cars so that the attack can be delivered with greater execution.
Typical Ambush.
A typical ambush is described in a report of the commander of the East County Clare brigades.
Thirty-five men, five acting as scouts attacked a police lorry containing a district inspector and nine constables at Glenwood Belvoir killing all but four who escaped. Twenty of the attackers, it is stated were armed with rifles and ten with double-barrelled shotguns. They were concealed on one side of a road near a stream.
"As in a previous ambush," the commander reports, "the main body was divided into three parties. The position which was occupied at 7 a. m., was not very favorable, but we counted on the element of surprise and the concentrated fire of 15 of the rifles and the ten shotguns in the first volley to make up for shortcomings and in this we were successful."
They waited, it appears, until four o'clock in the afternoon before the lorry came in sight.
"When the car came into center position," the report continues,
"it was raked with the fire of the 24 guns, most of the police were shot off and the car came to a dead stop. Some of the police when they got on the road made an attempt to put a fight but the second volley, which included all the rifles, wiped them out.
What is termed 'an exceedingly risky operation as we were half the enemy strength' was the attack in County Donegal on a military train from Derry. According to the brigade commander's report the attacking party numbered 26. Information was received at 9:30 at night, the report says, that the special train was to leave Derry at 3 a. m., the next morning.
Prepared to Ambush Train.
"Little time was left to choose a position and get settled, but the train was late, giving us three-quarters of an hour to get ready.
We chose a cutting, one side of which was on a level with the carriage windows. At the ends of each side we placed bombers and rifle men and between were placed the remaining rifle men and the others differently armed.
Two large boulders were placed on the rails and the wire fences at each side were pulled up to afford a safe exit. The station building a short distance away was taken possession of and a green light displayed.
"There were seven carriages on the train and it was traveling at a good speed when it struck the stones.
"Fire was opened from both sides and bombs were hurled thru the windows. The fire was returned from the cab of the engine where a Lewis gun was placed in position. Our riflemen at the rear end of the train got down on the line for enfilading fire, but after about ten minutes, I was forced to order a retreat to effect the safe escape of our men. Eight bombs were thrown, two of which we are certain landed in carriages.
"In the retreat one of our two parties was surrounded twice but fought its way thru on each occasion. One of our men is missing and we believe he has fallen into the hands of the enemy. No other casualties were suffered on our side and, despite their denial, we have every reason to believe that at least ten men were either killed or wounded on the enemy side."

Fordson

$625 F. O. B. Detroit
The Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time.
The Fordson plows, harrows, drills as much ground in the same time as from four to six horses. (Many farmers say it does the work of eight horses.)
The Fordson does for the farmer just what machine power does for the manufacturer—it enables him to manufacture his product at less cost. And that is what the farmer wants to do; grow his crops more cheaply and make his margin of profit greater. And the Ford-son will help him do it.
